REGULATION

1. International Prize “The Naked Theatre” by Teresa Pomodoro

Spazio Teatro NO’HMA Teresa Pomodoro Association and the Township of Milan, with the High Patronage of the President of the Republic and the support of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, promote the thirteenth edition of the International Prize “The Naked Theatre” by Teresa Pomodoro.

The Prize is dedicated to the memory of Teresa Pomodoro, founder in 1994 of the Association. Teresa Pomodoro was the inspiration for a theater open to interactions between various artistic disciplines, the soul of a theater that reaffirms its ethical, cathartic and mimetic function, choosing to put the excluded at the center of her investigation and give voice to marginalization and degradation, to suffering, to racism, and to that violated and overwhelmed humanity.

The objective of the Prize is to reveal and promote those forms of “theatre of inclusion” that brings theatre into the heart of society, giving back to the performing arts their value of experience and an opportunity for growth and sharing, opened to everybody, without any distinctions of age, social background, gender, culture or religion.

The “Theatre of Inclusion” is open to accept new languages, wherever they can be found. This appeal shall be extended through space, reaching both distant lands and familiar locations, in research of artists who perceive this message and provide their own interpretation of its meaning.

The 13th edition of the Prize confirms its structure: the selected shows will run alongside the normal programming of the No'hma's season and will each have two consecutive performances.

2. The Participants

International productions and works can participate to the Prize. It is open to artists in all areas of expression, extending beyond traditional forms of theatre, comprising companies, theatres, associations and institutions, operating in the areas of culture, art, and other forms of experience.

3. The Juries

The International Jury of Experts and the Jury of Spectators will judge the shows.

Spectators will be provided with the Passport for Culture Passport, which will allow them to vote and make a rating of the best shows.

The International Jury of Experts is composed of figures from the world of culture, art and society: Lev Abramovič Dodin (Artistic Director of Malyj Dramatičeskij Teatr of St. Petersburg), Stathis Livathinos (Greek Director), Enzo Moscato (Founder and Artistic Director of Compagnia Teatrale Enzo Moscato) , Lluís Pasqual (Spanish Director), Tadashi Suzuki (Director of Suzuky Company of Toga – SCOT in Japan), Peter Stein (German Director), Oskaras Koršunovas (Founder and Artistic Director of the Oskaro Koršunovo Teatras of Vilnius – OKT), Muriel Mayette-Holtz (Director of the Théâtre National de Nice), Fadhel Jaïbi (Artistic Director of the Théâtre National Tunisien) , Gábor Tompa (President of Europe Union Theaters and Director of Hungarian Theater of Cluj, Romania). Members of the Jury perform their work free of charge.

President of the Jury will be Livia Pomodoro, President and Artistic Director of Spazio Teatro No'hma.

In case that a member of the Jury is related to one or more members of the theatre productions in the competition, the Juror shall abstain from voting the show, and the same approach shall be followed in the case of any form of conflict of interests.

At the beginning of the following season, the Award Ceremony will take place. During the ceremony, the two Juries will award with prizes and special mentions the best theatre companies.

4. How to participate

To participate to the 13th edition of the International Prize, participants must submit the following material:

- Presentation of the theatre company
- Description of the show
- Full video of the performance
- Press review, if available
- Technical scheme

The material, which will not be returned, must be send to the email address:
nohma@nohma.it

Alternatively, theatre companies can send the material to:

Spazio Teatro No'hma Teresa Pomodoro
